Perils of the Overland Telegraph.

The correspondent of the Sacramento Union at Salt Lake writes of the difficulty of keeping up the line of the Overland Telegraph in working order. He says: We must add to the [illegible] [illegible] that railroad line—[illegible] [illegible]—the vast extent of level [illegible] line over the deserts and prairies, [illegible] must [illegible] some [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] what [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] to [illegible] that great [illegible] not over indulgence to those from which much is expected.

Since the [illegible] of the Overland line, ten days ago, [illegible] [illegible] circumstances have been experienced. The western portion of the line has steadily got into operation, and received the first [illegible] of this [illegible] till there was nothing wrong on the east of us. There had been a fearful storm near the Sweetwater and the line got down, which took nearly twenty four hours to get it up again, as the operator had to go [illegible] the ponies intended for this service not yet being in the organization. This was scarcely remedied before the prairie was on fire east of Fort Kearney, burning down a number of poles, and, by the by, burning up a C. O. C. and P. P. Co's stage and giving our mail matter something like a warming if not a singeing. That also caused delay. Subsequently, a break on the western line was reported which took some hours to reach and remedy. The eastern line was then in successful operation, and business came rushing into the Salt Lake office anxiously awaiting the repair of the western "break." Both lines then worked smoothly, and business from Montreal, Canada; Portland, Maine, Lexington, Kentucky, New York, Boston, Philadelphia and almost every city in the Union, was rapidly sent on to our business men on the Pacific and received by them within the same day, exhibiting very satisfactorily what the line can accomplish, and what may be fully relied upon when the way offices are established over the deserts East and West, and when the nimble-footed ponies that have galloped over with your dispatches in times past become the conductors of the "repairers" from station to station. I have the most unwavering confidence that within a very short period of time the telegraphic dispatches from the East and from the West will travel over this transcontinental line with as much regularity and expedition as they now sent over your own State lines—it is but a matter of time—and that also not to exceed more than twenty days at the utmost. Of course the difficulties now experienced in Missouri will not be entirely overcome within that specified time, but I have the assurance from the proper quarter that the new line from Omaha to Chicago, via Iowa, will be put through with celerity—as fast as men and means can accomplish it—which is expected to be entirely finished some time before or about Christmas.

I may as well add that another prairie fire occurred at Julesburg yesterday, burning up twenty of Creighton's poles.

The people have been having terrible storms in Sacramento Valley.—The Red Bluff Independent of the 12th says: "During the night the wind howled through the streets like an army of demons let loose from Pandemonium, and the long pent up waters that have gathered somewhere above, and for so long held back, broke through and came down in torrents, and thundered upon our roofs, a grand accompaniment to the howling blast, which we were glad to hear—the rain we mean, not the big blow. Signs and awnings suffered somewhat from the antics of the [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] from the deluge of rain, but the parched earth was glad, and so were we, that the rain came, if it was borne upon the wings of the hurricane."

Dr. Scott, of San Francisco, is now in New York, explaining his anti-Union sentiments. Verily his works do follow him.

FRIDAY MORNING, NOV. 22, 1861.

THE NEWS.

We received last night by Express, Eastern news including the 11th November; and by Overland Telegraph, news including the 15th of November. (Our dispatch read 18th—but that must be a mistake.) The news is important. We have some details of the conquest of Port Royal and Beaufort, S. C., by our naval forces. Beaufort is a position of much importance. It is in the centre of a very wealthy country—and will be held by our troops. The report that Charleston had been attacked, is not correct; and there is some evidence that our Government is about to seal up Charleston harbor—which is about the cheapest way to dispose of it. Another naval expedition—with land troops—has before this left for the South.

It is now no longer doubted that much dissatisfaction exists in the rebel ranks on the Potomac, and that the men are leaving for the South rapidly and in great numbers. The mass of the rebel army is made up of "poor whites," and they have been waiting so long for the privilege of plundering Washington and other Yankee cities, that they are getting out of heart.

We have some more accounts of the battle of Belmont. All concur that our troops fought bravely, and retired from the field in face of a greatly superior force, carrying off their trophies.

One of those British steamers we have heard of, as coming out from Liverpool with war materials for the rebels, has been captured. The English will find their project of running our blockades with arms for the rebels, an unprofitable business.

There are some evidences that the Federal troops on the Potomac will soon make an advance. Whether they will move for Richmond or proceed directly South, is uncertain. The call of troops from the Missouri army to St. Louis, seems to indicate that they are to be sent down the Mississippi. It is anticipated that an extensive move in that direction will be made very soon.

Other important items of information will be found in our late news. The prospects for the success of the Federal arms, looks favorable at this time. Indeed, all our late news is good.

Our last news from the States was sent by telegraph in five days! We trust we shall now receive our dispatches regularly. We pay a good price for the dispatches, and we desire our readers to have the benefit of them.

THE KNIGHTS OF THE GOLDEN CIRCLE.—A beginning has been made in Ohio towards breaking up the organizations of the Knights of the Golden Circle, which are known to exist in various parts of the State. Steps were taken to expose the oaths of the Order, which are of the most treasonable and infamous kind, and one Frederick Court, a leading member, was arrested at Marion, Ohio, on the 7th of October. An unsuccessful attempt was made by a party of three hundred, led by the Prosecuting Attorney of the county (who is supposed to be a member of the Order, to rescue the prisoner. Warrants are now out for other prominent members of the gang of scoundrels. It is said that persons obnoxious to them, and who it was feared would expose their oaths and plans, have been put out of the way mysteriously—perhaps murdered.

THE FORCE AT WASHINGTON.—The army at Washington, now under Gen. McClellan's exclusive command, is said by George Wilkes, of the Spirit of the Times, to number two hundred and forty thousand men. We suspect this statement is very near the truth, notwithstanding the announcement recently made by telegraph that the "Grand Army" had been greatly over estimated. We can see no object now, in either exaggerating or under-estimating our force, for we have no doubt that enlistments will continue as long as the Government may need more troops, whether we have a quarter of a million or less than two hundred thousand about Washington.

By Yesterday's Stage.

IMPORTANT NEWS FROM THE EAST.

Details of the Capture of Forts Beauregard and Walker—Battle of Belmont—Another Fleet Starting—National Salute.

Eastern Dates including 11th November.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11th.—Thomas F. Cogan a waiter at the St. Nicholas Hotel, was murdered on the sidewalk last night, by a loafer named White. The latter was arrested.

The 55th N. Y. Regiment left for Washington to-day. Three more regiments will leave to-morrow.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 11th.—It is reported by a boat from Old Point, that a steamer came within the Capes last evening and continued up the bay without stopping. She was thought to be the Vanderbilt on her way to Annapolis with dispatches for the fleet.

Thirteen cases of soldiers clothing belonging to Seventy-ninth N. Y. regiment found at Erie depot going west, were seized, and the quartermaster and sutler were arrested for defrauding the Government.

Reports have been received at Washington confirming the success of the naval expedition.

The N. Y. Post says an expedition is about to sail to seal the harbors of Charleston and Savannah against the exit and ingress of vessels.

There is also a flotilla of 40 vessels now in the port of N. Y., armed and ready to sail for the Gulf of Mexico.

Dispatches from Cairo states that the battle at Belmont, last week, was bloody and hard fought, although the Federals, under Generals Grant and McClernard, captured over 200 prisoners and drove the enemy from their camp, burning their tents, &c., yet by reason of reinforcements coming to the enemy from Columbus Ky., the Federals were forced to retreat. Our loss is not far from 500 killed, wounded, and prisoners. The rebels loss is about the same. Pillow was in command of the rebels.

There is nothing new from Gen. Hunter's army to-day.

Dispatches of army movements are allowed to be sent from Springfield.

Quincy, Nov. 11th.—Capt. Steadman arrived at Washington, yesterday noon, bringing dispatches from the naval expedition.

He is is the bearer of two flags, one Palmetto flag, and one American, which was hoisted in South Carolina, over Fort Walker.

Capt. Steadman reports that the captured forts are magnificent with earth covered ways and bomb-proof magazines, and that all our troops had to do was to hold them; they can be held against any opposing force.

Commander Drayton, of the Pocahontas, is a brother of Gen. Drayton, who commanded the forts.

On the reception of official dispatches, the following order was issued:

The department announces to the navy and to the country its gratification at the brilliant sucess of the combined navy and army force respectively commanded by Flag officer F. Dupont and Brig. Gen. W. H. Sherman with the capture of forts Walker and Beauregard commanding the entrance to fort Royal harbor, and to commemorate this signal victory, it is ordered that a national salute be fired from each navy yard at meridian on the day after the reception of this order.

A New York dispatch says orders have been received from Washington to ship a large quantity of ordnance and stores immediately to Port Royal.

The Seminole had five shots in her hull.

The Wabash had her machinery disabled.

Five of the twenty guns of the fort on Hilton Creek were dismounted. There were 800 rebels on Hilton Peaks, and 1500 on Bay Point. We have captured 55 cannon 500 muskets and any amount of ammunition.—The road by which the rebels escaped is covered with rifled muskets, knapsacks, etc. We have taken 2800 blankets and tents for 200 men.

The rebel guns were all 32 pounders four being rifled and cast this year, at Richmond. The others were from Norfolk, including an English gun captured in the last war. The muskets and ammunition are English.

The chief engineer of the Susquehannah was killed.

Thirty dead bodies have been found and more are being found having been hastily buried in the sand.

The Georgia troops ran first and the South Carolina last. A German artillery company, who served the guns, stayed till the last.

Gen. Heintzelman from the left wing of the army of the Potomac, says it is true the rebels are leaving for the South as fast as possible.

Gen. Price's main force was found forty miles south of Springfield, planting artillery.

A PATRIOT ON POLITICIANS.—Hon. B. F. Hallett, formerly a leading Massachusetts Democrat, but now for his country only, in a recent letter declining to attend a political meeting in Pennsylvania, makes the following excellent hit on the miserable party hacks, who consider their own aggrandizement of more importance than the safety of the nation:

"There is upon us one great absorbing necessity. We must get the old Union back under the Constitution; and to talk of party now is as discordant and out of place as was the clamor of Johnny Hook for the price of his beef in the camp of the Revolution. When we have measures to discuss, parties are in place; but when the life of the nation is at stake, the party man is his country's pest. He who cannot, to-day, in his country's extreme peril, lift himself above party, and take his stand on the high ground of constitutional nationality, is unfit for the public service, and is not large enough to represent anybody but himself."

By Continental Telegraph

Dates including the 15th November

Special Dispatch to the Daily Oregonian.

YREKA, Nov. 16—10 p. m.

(From the Marysville Appeal Extra of Nov 16th.)

More Troops going South.

QUINCY, Ill., Nov. 15.—The New York Tribune's special despatch says—Gen. Burnside's division, consisting of six regiments, is expected to depart immediately, on the arrival of the vessels at Beaufort.

News from Washington.

The New York World's Washington dispatch says—Generals Stone and Banks are in town. A grand Council of War is to be held to-day, which will be participated in by Gen. McClellan and the President and all the major generals. The question of an advance will then be decided.

Our spies and scouts report great disturbance in the rebel ranks and the rapid movement of troops.

Movement of Missouri troops to St. Louis.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Nov. 4th.—Since the departure of Generals Hunter, Pope and Sturgis' divisions of the army on Saturday last, (Nov. 9th) for St. Louis from Warsaw, nothing of interest has transpired and Springfield will be entirely evacuated, and a large number of Union men of the city and country have left with the army,—not being willing to trust their lives in the hands of the rebels.

Price moving to Winter Quarters.

Price began to move on Saturday morning with 2500 men and 25 pieces of artillery, towards Pineville, in the south [west] corner of the State. A gentleman from the rebel camp says, that Price designs to go into winter quarters at Cross Hollow, Washington County, Arkansas.

British Steamer Captured.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15th.—A large English steamer, loaded with munitions of war for the rebels, was captured by a United States' frigate and taken into Key West.

Charleston News.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 15th.—The Old Point boat has arrived here. Charleston papers of Nov. 13, state that Gen. Lee is making extensive preparations to defend Beaufort, and that place is now occupied by Gen. Sherman, and that the negroes are now engaged in moving cotton and other property. Two yankee gunboats were aground near the village.

The Charleston Courier states, that there is little cotton stored at or near Beaufort.

The Rutledge mounted riflemen started for Beaufort Nov. 10th. On Monday a detachment of Col. Cheneyman's mounted rifleman of the North Carolina regiment was also on the way.

Four Millions of Cotton taken.

The New York Herald's despatch says that Dodge, chief of police at Baltimore, was here to-day and reported to the War Department, that information was brought to Baltimore this morning, by a boat from Fortress Monroe, that Gen. Sherman had seized three million dollars worth of cotton in the vicinity of Beaufort, South Carolina, and that numbers of citizens had professed loyalty to this government.

Gwin under arrest.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15th.—The steamer Champion from Panama, has arrived. Ex-Senator Gwin was a passenger under arrest. Gwin, Calhoun Benham, and J. L. Bent of California, were expected on the Uncle Sam.

Latest from Beaufort.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15th.—The steamer Coatzacoalcos, from Port Royal Wednesday Nov. 13, arrived here last night. The troops had all been landed, and the war materials from the various vessels of the fleet are being rapidly discharged. It was surmised that the pickets on the opposite side of the Island, near Savannah ferry, had been attacked by the rebels. The federal forces will take formal possession of Beaufort, on Thursday, Nov. 13th.

CITY.

Circuit Court.—In the case of the State of Oregon vs. F. Patterson, which is now on trial, an additional juror, Mr. F. Murray, was obtained early yesterday morning, which completed the panel; but before the counsel opened the case to the jury, an order was given by the Court for all witnesses to absent themselves from the Court room prior to their examination—among whom was the reporter of this paper. We are therefore unable to give any further particulars.

A Discovery.—Several gutters made along the side-walks, lately, have settled the question that water will run down hill—much to the advantage of certain portions of certain streets.

The State vs. F. Patterson.—The trial of this case is yet progressing. Our reporter has been called as a witness. We suppose the evidence will be very much like that given before the Court of Enquiry.

Ought Not To Be.—When it becomes necessary to take up a crossing in order to put down gas pipe, the crossing should be left in as good order as before it was taken up. There is an obvious neglect in this case in regard to a portion of the crossing lately taken up on Second street.

Loading.—The brig Sunny South is loading with produce for San Francisco.

Can't Do Without the News.—A very sensible man, who has not made half as much gold as we wish he had, told us yesterday that "he must have the news—send me the Daily Oregonian to Oregon City—you take the dispatches. Here's your money." Nuff sed.

The correspondent of the New York Times, who was taken prisoner at Lexington, wrote to that paper that nine-tenths of the Missouri soldiers engaged under Price were not slaveholders but were refuse stuff, who, "if sound, adult negroes were selling at a dime apiece, could not, by clubbing together in hundreds, raise money enough to buy a negro baby." The New York Independent lately charged that the rebels of Missouri were the slaveholders of that State; to which the St. Louis Republican, (September 20th,) makes the following reply:

"Truth requires the contradiction of the statement implied by the Independent. Much the larger portion of the slaveholders in Missouri are faithful adherents of the United States. The entire number of slaveholders here is small. And if it were true that the rebels were, as the New York papers assert, 'almost exclusively slaveholders,' the fact would show that the merest handful of men could keep the whole State in confusion, and repel large armies. A moment's consideration must show the folly of such a mis-statement. But we must repeat, again, that the men who are in the rebel army under Price, own few slaves; the most of them are adventurers, waiting for anything to turn up to better their condition."

The Anti Slavery Standard styles Lincoln "the unlooked for assistant of Beauregard and Davis."

Mrs. Anna Williamson, residing at Paterson, New Jersey, has six sons belonging to the national army, and the seventh has announced his purpose of following them within a month.

☞ Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

☞ Swett's Grape Bitters, or Restorative Wine, manufactured under the supervision of Mrs. A. M. Swett, the celebrated Clairvoyant Physician, and prepared from herbs of great medicinal virtue, combined with the pure juice of the California Grape—a certain remedy for Liver Complaint, Debility, Biliousness, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Impaired Appetite, Impure Breath, &c., and all diseases requiring a powerful Liver Invigorator and Tonic. Warranted the best remedy ever invented for diseases peculiar to females, such as Leucorrhea, or Whites, Weaknesses, &c. Sold by all Druggists, and by DANIEL SWETT, Proprietor, 5[illegible] California street, San Francisco. aug2d6m

☞ The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Ricord is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country; as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a diploma, and the honorary ad eundem degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to the readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in corresponding, please enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address L. J. CZAPKAY, M. JUDGMENT FOR A NEWSPAPER ACCOUNT.—Among the recent decisions at the general term of the Supreme Court of the Albany (New York) district, was one in favor of J. Salisbury against Bradford C. Wait, for seven years' subscription to the Catskill Record and Democrat. The decision was in favor of the publisher, and the judgment and costs, we understand, amount to between two and three hundred dollars.

One of the Eastern exchanges copies the above paragraph, and adds the following comment:

Good enough for him! He had sneaked along seven years years, enjoying the fruits of the labor of an editor, and now he has to pay that bill, with Court costs superadded. If publishers would make a few more such exhibitions, newspaper swindlers would find it a desperate game to play. We hope it will prove a warning to delinquents.

The New York Observer, one of the oldest religious newspapers in the country, says of this decision:

It is surprising that so few subscribers fully understand their responsibilities to publishers of newspapers. The law which governed in this decision is a law of Congress, and therefore applicable in every State in the Union.

GEN. HUNTER'S AID.—Quite a sensation was created in Jefferson City, Missouri, on the evening of the 9th inst, at the arrival of Mrs. Col Ellis from Tipton. She was dressed in a semi-military riding habit and hat, with a crimson sash thrown around the left shoulder, as an officer of the day, mounted on a splendid charger, and attended by two orderlies. She had ridden forty-five miles since ten o'clock, and without taking a moment's rest, delivered her orders at camp, and then waited upon Gen. Price with her dispatches, urging forward two squadrons of Col. Ellis's command, now here, to join the regiment at Tipton. This militaire valient is attached to the First Missouri Cavalry, as special aid to her husband, Col. Ellis.

the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a long existence of suffering and consigning them to an early grave.

Self abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

[illegible] and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice [illegible] the most remarkable cures. Medicines will be sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

[illegible] The undersigned desirous of [illegible] may be unfortunate enough to [illegible] permanent relief of their sufferings [illegible] gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the [illegible] health, borne down by the [illegible] the various practices of [illegible] in body and mind [illegible] the most trifling duty imposed upon [illegible] I sought the advice of [illegible] who at first regarded my disease as of trifling [illegible] but after a few weeks, and [illegible] months of their treatment, I found, to my [illegible] that instead of relief, my [illegible] torture, and being told by [illegible] my disease being principally confined to the brain [illegible] of little consequence, I despaired of [illegible] health, strength and energy; and as a last resort [illegible] with but a faint hope called upon Dr. Czapkay, [illegible] my case, prescribed some medicine which [illegible] relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness [illegible] encouraged by the result I resolved to place [illegible] under his care, and by a strict obedience [illegible] directions and advice, my head became [illegible] ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and [illegible] weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my [illegible] the slightest alarm or excitement, the [illegible] and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of [illegible] the incapability to study, and want of [illegible] the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams [illegible] followed by involuntary discharges, have all [illegible] and in fact in two months after having [illegible] the doctor I felt as if inspired by a new life—that [illegible] but a short time ago I contemplated to end [illegible] With the view to guard the unfortunate [illegible] into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty [illegible] this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. [illegible] and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience that under his care a radical and permanent cure will be [illegible]

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I take the last of your medicine, and do not think I shall need more, as I feel very well except that I have not got my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I [illegible] It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I left your institute, with my constitution, as I thought [illegible] entirely and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do enough to ease the pain in my back and head, and allay my nerves so that I would not get excited and tremble at everything. Now that you know what I expected, you can judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from all symptoms and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin and the ulcers from my throat, and the only [illegible] page of those emissions which you said were the principal cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having got my strength I feel as well as any man can feel. Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your bill, as I think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited you may put this letter in the newspaper. I have me gratefully yours, THOMAS HAY.

Thankfulness is the Incentive to [illegible]

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my [illegible] I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves commendation not only as an act of scientific skill, but of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly and from causes unknown to me was seized with a fit of [illegible] which owing to my inability to meet the expense [illegible] spent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the [illegible] treatment which I met with on attempting at some [illegible] such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of physicians. I was frequently while in pursuit of my [illegible] thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, I yet [illegible] miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon [illegible] would render assistance or shelter me from danger [illegible] those who sought to prolong the existence of my [illegible] While in this state and having, previous to my [illegible] tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to [illegible] seeking aid of a physician and, by [illegible] upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my [illegible] and of my inability to reward him for his services, [illegible] which, however, he at once undertook my case and [illegible] the blessing of God I was once more restored to [illegible] health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I [illegible] except [illegible] acknowledgment of my indebtedness, I [illegible] myself and all afflicted to make the case public [illegible] that those in need of medical advice may find a [illegible] in whom every confidence can be placed.
